SYNOPSIS

Written and executive produced by Joss Whedon (Buffy, The Avengers), IN YOUR EYES is a timeless boy-meets-girl story, wrapped in a supernatural, Whedonesque world.

In the frozen East Coast winter, Rebecca (Zoe Kazan) is withering away in a life of cocktail parties and lonely nights as the sheltered, soft-spoken wife of a successful doctor. Across the country in sun-drenched, arid New Mexico, charismatic ex-con Dylan (Michael Stahl-David) is struggling to find his footing and a fresh start. When these polar opposites realize they share an inexplicable connection, a unique metaphysical romance begins.

IN YOUR EYES is the second film from Joss Whedon and Kai Cole's "Independent Micro Studio" Bellwether Pictures, following the critically acclaimed, contemporary Shakespearean adaptation of MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING, which screened at last year's Tribeca Film Festival.

A high-energy, eclectic soundtrack pulses through the film, featuring established indie darlings like The Lumineers, Iron & Wine, and Santigold, as well as on-the-rise bands like Opus Orange and Wildlife. There's even an original song penned by Joss Whedon himself.

Directed with confidence and style by Tribeca Film Festival alum Brin Hill and written/executive produced by Joss Whedon, IN YOUR EYES stars Zoe Kazan (Ruby Sparks), Michael Stahl-David (Cloverfield), Nikki Reed (Thirteen, The Twilight Series), Mark Feuerstein (Royal Pains), Jennifer Grey (Dirty Dancing), Steve Howey (Shameless), and Steve Harris (The Practice). Producers are Kai Cole (Much Ado About Nothing) and Michael Roiff (Waitress, Save the Date). Cinematography is by Elisha Christian with Film Editing by Steven Pilgrim. Original music is by Tony Morales.

CREW BIOS

DIRECTOR – Brin Hill

In Brin's aggressive and unique ability to cross boundaries of all genres, there is always a love story; there is always a need for human connection. Known for a nuanced sense-of-humor, he is an actor's director that creates complex characters with realistic depth.

Brin recently wrote two films inspired by true events: WON'T BACK DOWN (20th Century Fox) and BATTLE OF THE YEAR: THE DREAM TEAM (Screen Gems/Sony Pictures).

Hill wrote and directed the much acclaimed adaptation of the YA novel BALL DON'T LIE. The powerful ensemble feature will be released in 2014 and is currently being adapted into a television series.

Brin's short work includes THE ECOLOGY OF LOVE, an intoxicating film starring music and fashion icon Pharrell and the moody MORNING BREATH: A BROOKLYN LOVE STORY, which captured a number of prestigious top awards worldwide, including a Special Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival.

Hill has also created projects for companies as diverse as HBO Films, Miramax, ESPN, Warner Bros., Nike, Visa, Powerade, Bombay Gin, Adobe, Intel, the NBA, the NFL, Toyota, Cadillac, Red Bull, and Beats By Dre.

PRODUCER – Michael Roiff

Michael Roiff is an independent film producer living and working in Los Angeles, California where he founded Night & Day Pictures in 2005.

His first feature film, WAITRESS, premiered at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival where it was acquired by Fox Searchlight. The film, written and directed by Adrienne Shelly and starring Keri Russell and Nathan Fillion, was released in the Spring of 2007 and was the highest grossing specialty release for the subsequent year. Following the release, Roiff was named one of Variety's "10 Producers To Watch." He is currently collaborating with Tony Award Winning Broadway producer Barry Weissler and director Diane Paulus to develop a stage adaptation of the film.

Most recently, IFC released Roiff's film SAVE THE DATE starring Lizzy Caplan, Alison Brie, Mark Webber, Martin Starr, and Geoffrey Arend. The film, written and directed by Michael Mohan and based on the works of acclaimed graphic novelist Jeffrey Brown, premiered in competition at the 2012 Sundance Film Festival.

Currently, Roiff is in post-production on LOVESICK, directed by Luke Matheny, and starring Matt LeBlanc, Ali Larter and Chevy Chase.

Meanwhile, he just wrapped principal photography on CARDBOARD BOXER starring Thomas Haden Church, Terrence Howard, and Macy Gray as well as LARRY GAYE: RENEGADE MALE FLIGHT ATTENDANT starring Mark Feuerstein alongside Stanley Tucci, Henry Winkler, Marcia Gay Harden, Taye Diggs and Jason Alexander among others.

Roiff's additional credits include: the Lifetime film RESTLESS VIRGINS, Neil Abramson's AMERICAN SON (Nick Cannon, Melonie Diaz), which premiered at Sundance where it was acquired by Miramax; Brin Hill's BALL DON'T LIE (Chris "Ludacris" Bridges, Nick Cannon, Melissa Leo), which premiered at the Tribeca Film Festival; and Cheryl Hines' SERIOUS MOONLIGHT written by Adrienne Shelly (Meg Ryan, Timothy Hutton, Kristen Bell, Justin Long) which also debuted at Tribeca where it was acquired by Magnolia Pictures. He has also been a producer on the Ball Up Streetball Tour airing nationwide on Fox Sports Net.

Roiff grew up in Boston, Massachusetts and graduated from Harvard University where he was Vice President of The Hasty Pudding Theatricals.

EDITOR – Steve Pilgrim

Editor Steven Pilgrim is a long-time collaborator with director Brin Hill. Their creative partnership extends back to Hill's 1999 short film A GLANCE AWAY. Since then, they have worked together on virtually all of Hill's projects, including the award-winning short MORNING BREATH and the feature film BALL DON'T LIE.

In addition to his work with Hill, he has an extensive background in documentary film and television, with past projects including Jamie Johnson's BORN RICH, series work for PBS and ESPN, and Jonathan Hock's Emmy-nominated UNGUARDED.

COMPOSER – Tony Morales

Emmy-nominated Tony Morales began his career as a staff composer within the commercial music division of Hans Zimmer's Media Ventures in 1998. Since that time he has gone on to compose numerous scores for film and television including Gopher Broke, which received an Oscar nomination for Best Animated Short in 2005, Hide Away, an official selection of the 2011 SXSW Film Festival, Unguarded, an ESPN documentary which was nominated for two Sports Emmys, and Hatfields & McCoys (co-composed with John Debney), which earned Morales his first Emmy-nomination.

Working with some of the film industry's top composers, such as Harry Gregson-Williams, Brian Tyler, and John Debney, Morales has contributed to the scores of Iron Man 3, Now You See Me, Unstoppable, The Town, and The Change-Up. Morales has also contributed music to several hit television series including Buffy the Vampire Slayer, FX Network's The Riches, and Syfy's Warehouse 13. His video game credits include “Eat Lead: The Return of Matt Hazard,” which was nominated in the Best Original Instrumental category for the 2010 G.A.N.G. Awards.

Tony Morales’ upcoming projects include In Your Eyes (written by Joss Whedon), Night Has Settled, which debuted at the Santa Barbara International Film Festival on February 1st, and The Bag Man (starring Robert De Niro and John Cusack, co-composed with Edward Rogers). He composed the music for the Dreamworks Animation short Rocky and Bullwinkle, which will be released in 2014.
